20:02:39 From Michael Van Damme N6MOF/WRUF400 : Hi Matt, Is there data on how much it would cost to pay union workers to do more cleanup to bridge the gap in the volunteer drop off?
20:03:33 From Matthew Quevedo : Thanks for the question, Michael. I do not have the answer to that off-hand but I can get an estimate and circle back with you and Greg.
20:05:39 From Issa Ajlouny : Are the approximate 300 EIH's that the governor announced is being given to SJ have a site already to put them?
20:06:53 From Matthew Quevedo : Thanks, Issa. Not that I have heard but I can double check with Jim when we are off mute. The number from the State I believe is 200 with the Mayor's overall goal of 1000 this coming year.
20:08:33 From Michael Van Damme N6MOF/WRUF400 : We see you and hear you
20:15:52 From Matthew Quevedo : Thanks, Mary! And to Jim's point - the Mayor included it in the March Budget Message. See here: Expanding Our Tree Canopy - Trees beautify our neighborhoods, improve our climate resiliency, clean our air, and reduce heat island effects. Last year, we allocated sufficient one-time and ongoing resources to plant 1,000 trees annually, but a recent audit revealed that we're leaving dollars on the table collected through tree removal permit-in-lieu fees. To better leverage this nearly $1.5 million, the City Manager is directed to explore whether additional staff or contracts with community partners will result in more trees in the ground by the end of this year, and – as previously directed by Council – focus tree planting efforts in districts with the lowest tree canopy.

20:18:53 From Michael Van Damme N6MOF/WRUF400 : What about having residents volunteer host an officer in training like the San Jose Giants do with their young baseball recruits. we live near the training center.
20:22:06 From Dave Burckhard : Thanks, LPNA, for inviting me to this session. I'm expecting to develop a neighborhood association in my area as well as organize a CERT group in this neighborhood which is north of Evergreen Community College and South of Quimby and east of San Felipe. I must leave to take care of other matters.
